

Join us for a toast at the Beer and Gin Festival

We're celebrating our 20th birthday

1-3 September 2017

We can't quite believe it but we've been here for 20 glorious years at The Wayfarer.

Our birthday falls on the weekend of our annual Problem Child Brewing Beer and Gin festival and we'd love to see you down here.

What can you expect?

- FREE entry
- 18 beers and ciders on the outdoor hand pulls from all over the world
- in-house beer, Problem Child Brewing beers throughout the weekend
- gin wardrobe stocked with 14 speciality dry, smooth, fruity and spicy gins, garnishes and tonics to try
- live music across the weekend
- street food stall for when you're peckish

- under cover incase the sunshine decides to turn down our invite
- Sunday beer sale - all beers half price after 5pm on Sunday

Live Music Headliners

Live music will feature from an array of talented local musicians.

Friday at 9pm - be prepared to dance the night away to Marble Eyes - a brilliant covers band from St Helens.

Saturday at 9pm - Glastonbury favourites Lyons and Lazel will grace the stage with their quirky and artistic musical talents. Not to be missed!

Sunday at 3pm - The Tune Inn, an acoustic trio featuring guitars and double bass will play out the afternoon.

Other live music acts will play throughout the weekend.

Our Conservatory Restaurant and Original Dining Rooms are open as usual for bookings, or why not sample some of the brilliant bites created by our head chef, Paul Harries and the team - available on the outdoor Street Food stall.

FREE entry.

See you there!
